The ceremony of Call to the Bar takes place in two separate procedures. First, the Benchers of The Law Society of Upper Canada, who are responsible for the government of the legal profession in Ontario, are called to order on the stage in a Special Convocation by the Treasurer, who is the head of the Society. The candidates will be presented by the Chair of the Admissions Committee to the Treasurer who will confer on them the degree of Barrister-at-Law and call them to the Bar of Ontario. Convocation will then adjourn and a Special Session of The Court of Appeal for Ontario and The Ontario Court of Justice (General Division) will be convened by the Registrar. The Chief Justice of Ontario will preside over the administering of the Oath of Allegiance, the Barristers Oath and the Solicitors Oath, to the newly called members of the Bar. The Court will then adjourn. Upon completion of these two ceremonies the graduates become Barristers and Solicitors, authorized to practise law in the Province of Ontario.

La cérémonie d'admission au Barreau se déroule en deux temps. En premier lieu, le Trésorier, qui est le chef de la direction du Barreau, ouvre sur l'estrade un Conseil extraordinaire du Barreau du Haut-Canada. Les conseillers sont responsables de l'administration de la profession juridique en Ontario. Le président du comité d'admission présente les candidats et candidates au Trésorier, qui leur décerne le titre d'avocat-plaideur et les reçoit au Barreau de l'Ontario. La séance du Conseil est alors levée et le greffier convoque une session extraordinaire de la Cour d'appel de l'Ontario et de la Cour de Justice de l'Ontario (Division générale). Le juge en chef de l'Ontario préside à la prestation du serment d'allégeance, du serment des avocats-plaideurs et de celui des procureurs par les nouveaux membres admis au Barreau. La séance de la Cour est alors levée. À l'issue de ces deux cérémonies, les diplômés deviennent avocats-plaideurs et procureurs et sont autorisés à exercer le droit dans la province de l'Ontario.
